

John "Jack" Frederick Stewart, 86, passed away Sunday, Aug. 14, 2011, in Arlington.

Memorial service: 10 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 20, at St. Alban's Anglican Church, 911 S. Davis Drive, Arlington.

Memorials: Memorial gifts may be made to the American Institute of Cancer Research or a charity of choice. Jack was born Jan. 9, 1925, in Natick, Mass., to John F.

Stewart Sr. and Phoebe Leddy Stewart. He was raised in Cumberland, Maine, and graduated from Boston University. Jack was a World War II veteran, having served in the Army during the Battle of the Bulge and the liberation of Paris. A longtime resident of San Antonio, he and his wife, Sarita, were active in service to SAMM shelter for the homeless. They moved to Arlington in 2002. Jack belonged to the Order of St. Luke and the Brothers of St. Andrew and truly loved the Lord. He was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War and the Scottish Society of San Antonio and Dallas. Jack was proud of his Scottish ancestry and wore his clan kilt with honor. He made many friends with his extraordinary wit and sense of humor.

Survivors: Wife, Sarita Stewart; daughters, Susan Edwards and Lina Carpenter; granddaughter, Arlina Maldonado; and cousins, Phoebe and Charlie Rey.
