

James Gray Luttrell

Birth: Mar. 1, 1909
Arlington, Tarrant County
Texas, USA

Death: May 8, 2008
Arlington, Tarrant County
Texas, USA

James Gray Luttrell, 99, a member of a pioneer Arlington family, passed away Thursday, May 8, 2008, in Arlington.

Graveside service: 1 p.m. Monday in Shannon Rose Hill Cemetery, Fort Worth.

Visitation: The family will receive friends 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday at Wade Family Funeral Home, 4140 W. Pioneer Parkway, Arlington.

Honorary pallbearers: Fred Bondurant, Eddie Williams, Dr. John Perkins and Joe Allie.

James was born March 1, 1909, in Arlington to George and Mittie Collins Luttrell.

At the time of his death, he was the oldest living resident born in Arlington.

James was a graduate of Arlington High School and the University of Texas. He was a business leader and home builder. James was a former Arlington city secretary and served on many charitable committees in Arlington and the Metroplex. He established a charitable trust for various children's programs and hospitals. His family owned one of the first grocery stores and funeral homes in Arlington.

Survivors: Son, George Ray Luttrell of El Paso; daughter, Will Ann Fairlamb of Arlington; grandchildren, Carey Fairlamb and Robert Luttrell; and great-grandchild, Colin Fairlamb.

Published in the Star-Telegram on 5/10/2008.