President's Message

What Does the SAR Mean to Me?

I recently received an e-mail from Ralph McDowell telling me about the death of Compatriot Billy E. Wolfe who recently joined the Dallas Chapter. To quote Ralph, "Bill was excited about proving his lineage to his patriot ancestor, Phillip Wolfe, who served in the North Carolina militia and was wounded in the Battle of King's Mountain. He and Carolyn told me several times how proud he was to become a member of SAR".

Ralph's comment made me stop and think about how easy it is to take the SAR for granted. We are the descendents of the heroes of the American Revolution; but how did our patriot ancestors feel about a group of ill equipped colonists taking on the greatest military power in the world?

Over 225 years separate us from the realities of the Battle of Kings Mountain or the battles of each of our ancestors. We should not forget the reality of war or their struggle for freedom. John Adams, when asked about the necessity of war said that, "We study the art of war so that our children can study agriculture and business, so that our grandchildren can learn music and literature."

We are free today to enjoy what they fought for and wanted for their descendents.

October 11 Meeting

Dr. Edward Countryman, SMU Distinguished Professor of History, will discuss "The USA Under the Articles of Confederation."

Note from Iraq: "The proud warriors of Baker Company wanted to do something on 9-11-03 to pay tribute to our fallen comrades; so since we are part of the only Marine Infantry Battalion left in Iraq the one way that we could think of doing that is by taking a picture of Baker Company saying the way we feel."
