President Vickers Reports

- At the Board of Managers Meeting just concluded, EFT Registrar David Powell was awarded a second Oak Leaf Cluster for his Liberty Medal.
- Nominating Committee will report at the November 14 meeting. Elections will be held at the December 12 meeting.
- Would like to combine the Newsletter Editor and Web Master into one position. Need a Volunteer!
- DAR Continental House still needs volunteers to work the State Fair.
- Dist 6 Meeting and the BOM were informative, members are encouraged to attend these.
- Historian Leslie Anderson will be awarded the Patriot Medal at the 2020 TXSSAR State Convention.

- East Fork-Trinity Chapter has been named as a member in Partners in Patriotism.
- Leslie Anderson has been accepted in the National Society Descendants of American Farmers.
- Compatriot Gary Lovell and WOSAR Margaret O'Connor have been inducted into the Jamestowne Society.
- Compatriot Jason Gray has been appointed EFT Assistant Chaplain
- Rockwall HS Senior Tyra Winters will be presented the SAR Life Saving Award at the November Meeting. Schedules permitting.

Registrar Activity and Application Status:

Registrar Powell reports: In 2018 EFT had 14 new inductees. So far in 2019 EFT has had 14 new members, we have 3 at national, 7 at state, and 5 in progress.

Also, an email scam is making the rounds...be aware!

A complete Registrar's report can be found in the EFT Newsletter.

Color Guard Report

Color Guard Commander Dennis Vierling reported that the details of Veterans Day Parade in Dallas are still a work in progress.

He will publish details when they are available. There will be a trailer for those needing to ride.
