President's Letter - Congratulations to our Compatriots and Friends for the excellent turnout at our September chapter meeting! We were inspired by the outstanding presentation on Uniforms, Accoutrements and Arms of the Continental Army by Compatriot Peter Baron and by the induction of four new Compatriots. New members are the life blood of our organization, and I encourage all of us to continue to look for prospective members among our acquaintances. I hope to see you all at the Boonville Days this Saturday and at our next meeting on October 28, when we will honor our first responders and other local heroes.

James L. Boone, Jr., President 2014-2015
