Explanation: Mailed in a request for extension on or about May 14, 2023. The Texas Society Sons of the American Revolution have filed their Form 990s on time every year through 2019. Due to COVID we had a change in Treasurers and accountants during the 2020-22 time period. During the process of hiring an auditor to review our 2022 financials we discovered that the 2020-22 returns had not been prepared and filed, and the accounting for the time period was incomplete. It took the Society considerable time to get the financial records in a condition where the Form 990s could be prepared. We are aware of the problems and have taken steps to correct them. This will not happen again. We have hired a new accountant and she will make sure that the financials are prepared and audited in a timely manner, and that the Form 990 will be filed as required. Please do not impose penalties - imposing penalties will not make the Society more likely to comply with its Form 990 obligations because it has already taken corrective steps in that respect, including the filing of this 2022 Form 990, prepared as timely as we can. And imposing penalties will only cause injury to the general community, by decreasing the funds available for the Society's exempt purposes. Thanks you!
